Well, not really blank, as I've just written in it.

Actually, I typed in it.

Want a yummy snack?

It's a great way to start the day! :)

Introduction

Your eBooks.

It's one way that you make money.

But did you realize...

There are common schlock ebooks that are obviously thrown together....

AND...there are high-quality ebooks that both:

- Makes learning easy for the customer

and

- Makes you money!

Isn't that great! And the truly glorious news is that making your ebook rock....doesn't take much extra effort at all.

What You Will Need

All you will need to make great profitable ebooks is:

- Open Office (or Microsoft Word)
- Affiliate links

And here's how to do it!

The Challenge

So!

You have been seized by an insane desire to create the most glorious ebook or infoproduct known by mankind.

Would you believe, I totally understand where you're coming from?

At the author of over 40 ebooks/books/infoproducts meself, it's a fair statement to say I've picked up some rather smashing ideas for making my ebooks deliver to me the most amount of passive profits imaginable, as well as make it super-easy for my customers to learn.

And the good news is, it's really easy to do!

Because this is a beginners book, instead of overwhelming you with 4,239 ideas, I'm going to focus upon....

Only 7 unique techniques!

Not a bazillion, not stuff that will have you dazed....just 7 simple, easy brilliant ideas that will help make your ebooks stand out from the rest of the thundering herd.

Before You Begin

I know, I know, you want to dive right into enhancing your ebook!

But please do give me a minute of your time – that minute, I promise you, will benefit your entire business long-term.

Okay? See for yourself!

The first thing you need to do is:

Cloak Your Affiliate Links

YES.

Cloak those blasted affiliate links that you'll be including in your ebook.

Why?

Because whenever anyone sees an affiliate link like

<http://lingstar.ponlinebiz.hop.clickbank.net/?offer=lingstar&pid=53>

They realize it's an affiliate link and can steal your commissions by substituting in their own affiliate link!

Thus....cloak your links.

The above Clickbank product does it quite nicely!

You can also refer to:

<http://www.barbaraling.com/insights/how-to-easily-cloak-your-clickbank-and-other-affiliate-links-for-free/>

<http://www.barbaraling.com/insights/hide-affiliate-links/>

as well.

I myself generally tend to use the 4 line php method at all times; it just makes life far far easier.

Remember – each affiliate link you add is one more opportunity for your reader to buy! I'm still getting sales from ebooks made years ago (my aWeber affiliate link, for example).

Next:

This is a really nice technique that I've been using ever since 1998, when I wrote me first infoproduct.

It's a fact. You did not become successful solely on your own....chances are, you owe big bunches of gratitude to lots and lots of colleagues, friends and family, right?

So....adding an acknowledgments page allows you to not only honor these people...but also to include their affiliate links as well as the destination!

More on this later.

But for now, write down below all the people you'd like to list.

Now, let's dive right into:

Step 1 – Add This To Your Header

QUICK!

TAKE A LOOK AT THE PAGE HEADER!!!!!!

You should see:

Do you see?

Do ya, do ya? (Okay yes I know, the title is different...that's because I was working on a different ebook for the purpose of example. I mean, why not? ::))

Quick! Now, look at, oh I don't know, the page that has Step 4 or Step 5!

Notice how the header changes? Instead of Step 1, it should show

Step 4 or Step 5.

Now, this by itself will not make you money. However, admit it...it looks just plain cool.

And professional.

And the more professional your ebook comes across...the more confidence people will have in buying your future products.

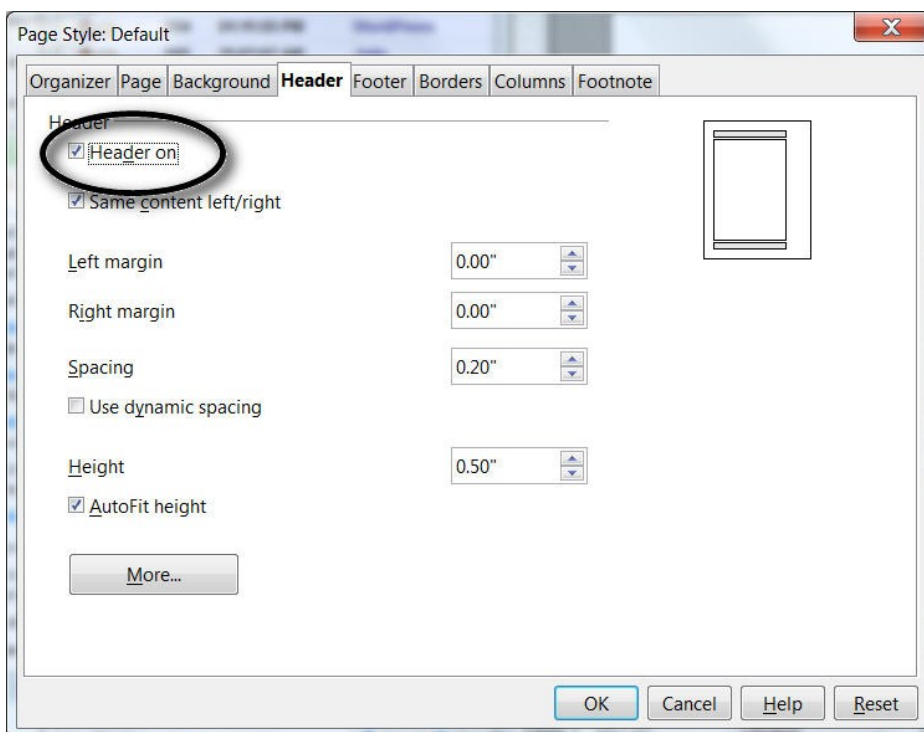

Here's how to do it in Open Office – it assumes that you use “Heading 1” to specify your chapters.

Step 1.) Make sure your headers are turned on.

Choose Format | Page

You'll see:

Make sure you tick the header ON. I generally set the height as well to be 1/2”.

Click OK.

Step 2.) Click your mouse cursor into the header.

Now, I always shade my headers and footers – you might simply have a blank one right now.

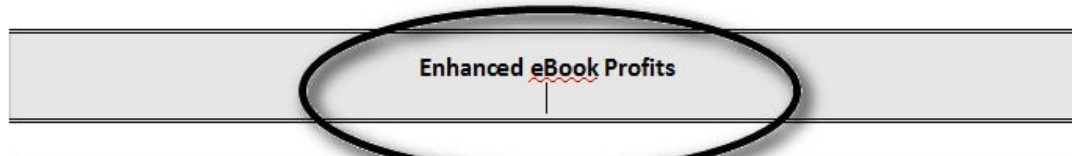

But when you click your cursor in your header, it should appear something like:

Next,

Step 3.) Type the name of your eBook and hit <Shift><Enter>

The <Shift><Enter> will add one carriage return (ie, line break) like so:

Step 2.) Click your mouse cursor into the header.

Now, I always shade my headers and footers – you might simply have a blank one right now.

But when you click your cursor in your header. it should appear

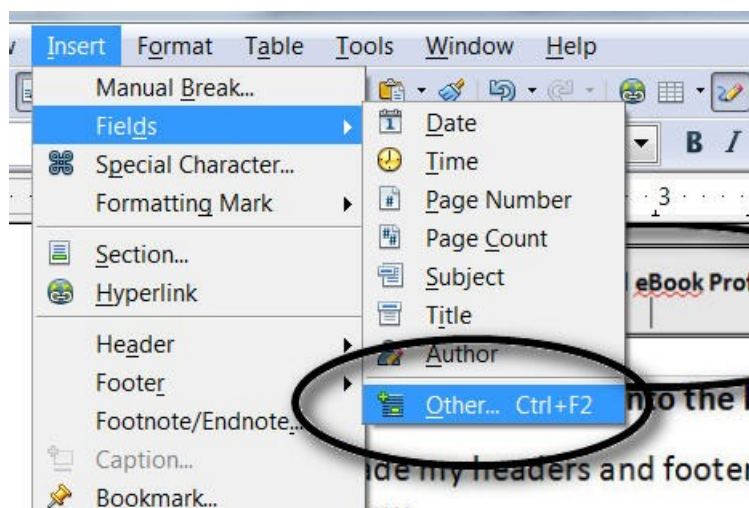

See, you've now added the title of your book!

Now you want to ensure that every page header has the right sub-headling.

Step 4 - Choose now Insert | Fields | Other

ie,

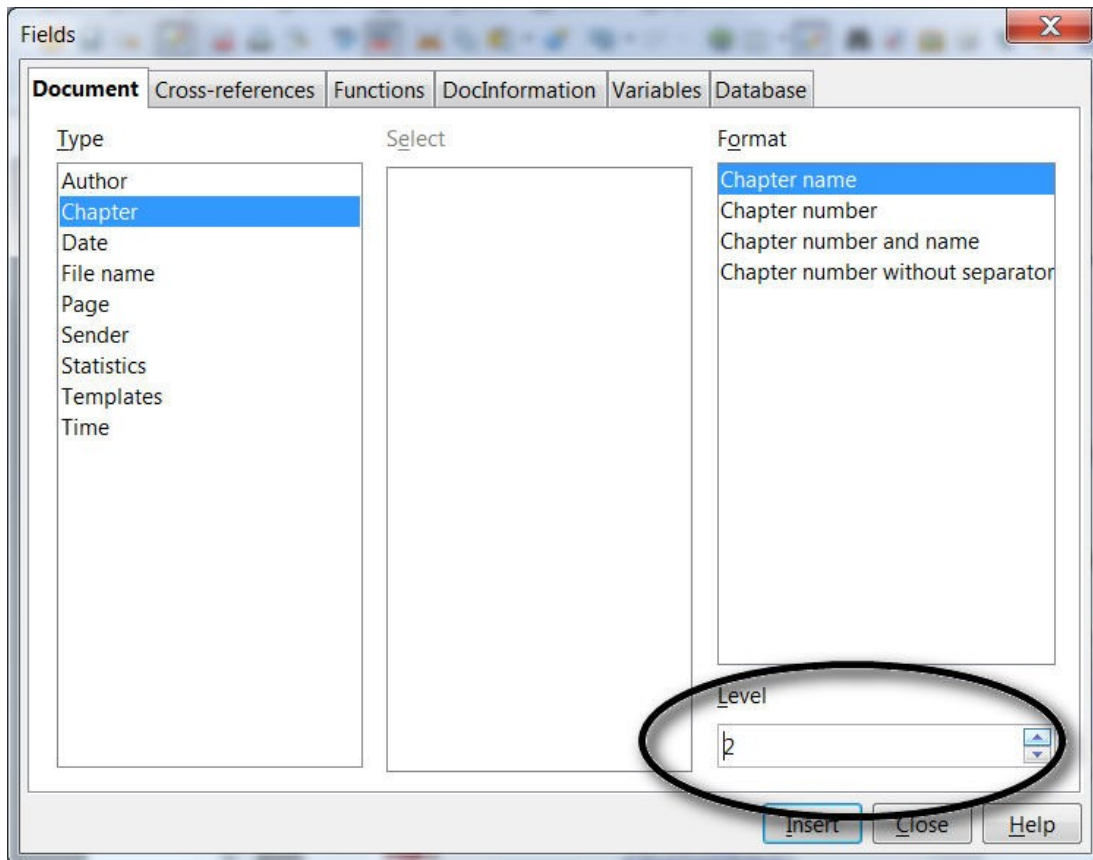

You'll see the following. Choose “Chapter.”

Now, look to the lower right – see that 'Level'?

Set it to “2” like so:

Click on “Insert” and then look at your header on your page.

You'll see it now has two lines – the first is your ebook title, and the second is your chapter title.

Cool, isn't it?

Need more ideas?

<http://user.services.openoffice.org/en/forum/viewtopic.php?f=7&t=8985&p=42374&hilit=ceffyl.net>

<http://user.services.openoffice.org/en/forum/viewtopic.php?f=7&t=10571> should help you grand!

What's that?

This takes care of making your header look awesome! But...what about your footer?

So glad you asked! The footer is 'way 'way easier:

Step 2 – Add This To Your Footer

QUICK!!!!!!!!!!

COUNT HOW MANY EXCLAMATION POINTS I JUST TYPED!

No wait, sorry, I meant,

QUICK! Look at the footer now!

You should see:

Http://www.dailywsos.com
A Virtual Coach Production

You know what's nice about this?

It's a clickable hyperlink!

And that means...

It gives people a one-click access directly back to MY site in all of its unadulterated glory!!!

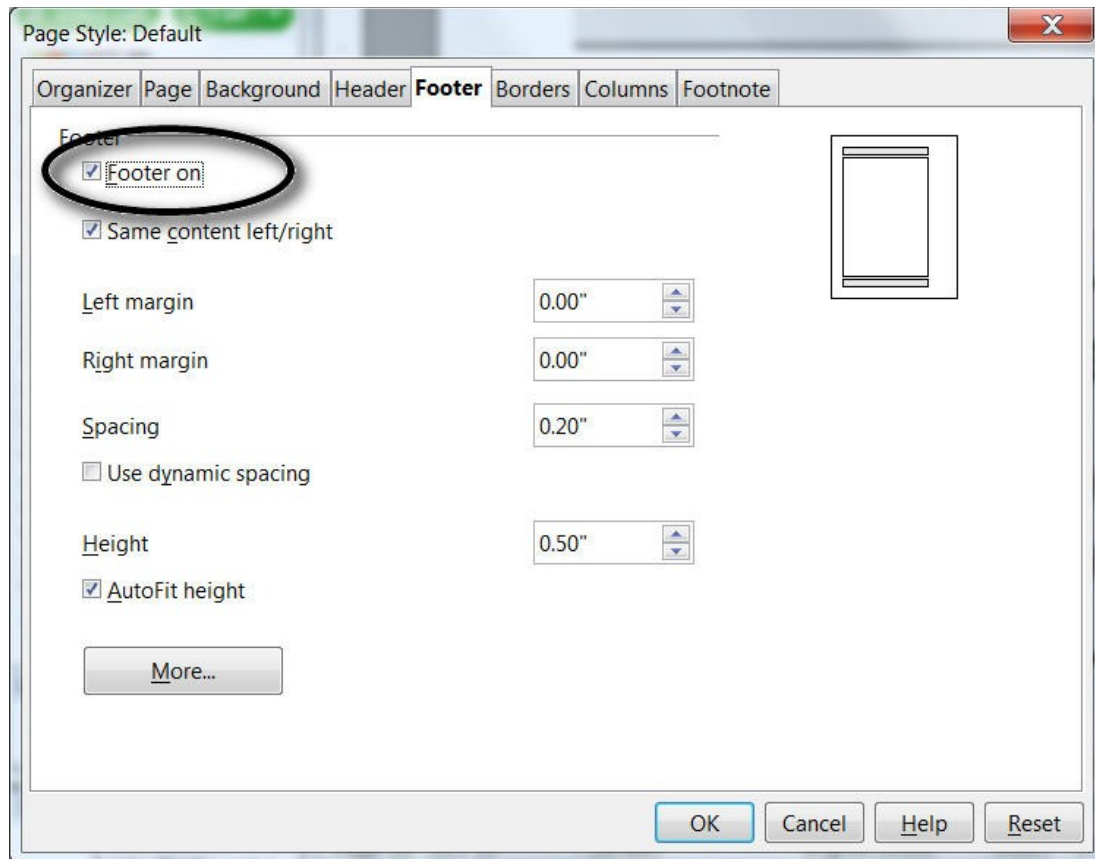

Is that the ultimate of wootness or what?

And it's really easy to do!

Step 1 – Make sure your footers are turned on.

Choose Format | Page | Footer

ie,

Make sure you tick 'Footer on'. I generally set my footers to be 1/2" as well.

Step 2 – Click your mouse cursor in the footer.

When you do so, it should look like:

Again, I use shadings on my footers.

Next, simply type in the destination you want your readers to click on.

- It could be your main site...
- It could be a special page entitled “What's Next!”
- It could be a link to a special offer you want to give to buyers of your book.

You're only limited by your imagination!

Next, let's get back to what you had listed earlier on – your acknowledgments. Move to:

Step 3 – Add Acknowledgments

Acknowledgments are really cool.

- One, they give your colleagues and friends some nifty visibility...and
- Two, you can use affiliate links as well!

Here's my acknowledgments:

A public thank you – I've been making my living online now for over 14 years and during this time, have been blessed by the following individuals:

- Bill Vick, Wallace Harkness, Dr. Ilyse O'Desky, Terry Zappulla, Ed Horch, Mary Ellen Ferrara, Tony Blake, and bunches more.
- I'm also deeply grateful to the blogosphere and the super folks from whom I learned including Kathe, Denise and the Wacky Gang, Janelle Kleppin, Erica Stone, Tink BD, Jenny Dunham, John Lenaghan, Debbie Benstein, Liz Strauss, Mark Davidson, Suzie Cheel, Joanna Young, Brian Clark, Darren Rowse, Maureen Sharib, Jim Stroud, Judi Sohn, Catherine Lawson, Maki, Wendy Piersall, John Chow, Gab Goldenberg, James Chartrand, Skellie, Crow, Joel Falconer, Melinda Lorelle, Brad Shorr, Cath Lawson, Barbara Swafford, Ulla Hennig and many more as well.
- And I would most remiss indeed if I neglected to mention Bonnie and the RocketMoms of Squidoo! They taught me an incredible amount about how terrific Squidoo is for anyone online.
- Next, I am indebted to:
- Donna Gillespie, author of the life-changing books The Light Bearer and Lady of the Light – one of the most superb writers today.*

Last but never least:

My family. My wonderful husband, Moses Ling, my terrific kids, my wondrous mooses, my absolutely fantastic parents - none of this would be possible whatsoever without their love and support. This one's for you, folks!

Lookie at, oh, I don't know...

Kathe, Denise and the Wacky Gang,

That be an affiliate link!

'nuff said, aye? (and btw, I really do highly recommend you click on that link and visit the site – the folks behind it are awesome below-the-radar marketers, indeed. I've learned bunches from them!).

Now, apply this to yourself.

- Are there colleagues who have affiliate programs to which you can link?
- Are there mentors to whom you owe bunches?
- Are there friends/family who helped make you what you are today?

Hmmmm?

If so, add 'em in!

At the very least, you'll be delivering traffic to them, and at the very most, they'll return the favor with their own ebooks.

What goes around...comes around. Trust me on that!

Next, pounce upon:

Step 4 – Add Recommended Resources Appendix

This is definitely a no-brainer.

Add an Appendix entitled “Recommended Resources.” In that section, add images and some brief copy as to why the products are the cat's meow.

Then hyperlink everything with your affiliate link!

This is another fantastic way to bring in residual income.

As is:

Step 5 – Add This To Your Pictures

Do you include pictures of software?

If so, why not hyperlink those with your affiliate link too?

For example, in my last product, Enhanced eBook Profits Secrets, I recommended the following goodie:

G'head, click on it!

You'll see it takes you to a WSO...via my affiliate link.

Neat, aye?

What's that? You want more ideas?

Well then, how about:

Step 6 - Make Your TOC Hyperlinked!

QUICK!

Scroll back to the Table of Contents!

Notice how everything is hyperlinked?

All you have to do is click on a step or chapter, and voila, you're brought to the page in question!

It's a very easy thing to do, and makes your ebook look far more professional.

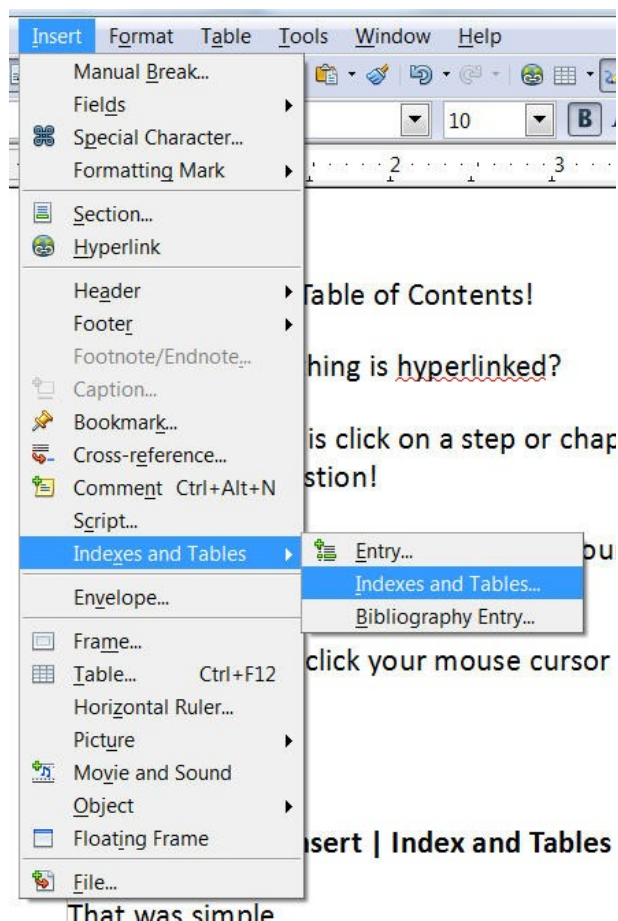

Here's how. First, click your mouse cursor where you want your TOC to be.

Then:

Step 1 – Choose Insert | Index and Tables | Index and Tables

It looks like:

That was simple.

Then

Step 2 – Click on Entries

You'll see:

Index/Table Entries Styles Columns Background

Level

10

Structure and Formatting

Structure < E# E T # > All

Chapter no. Entry text Tab stop Page no. Hyperlink

Character Style <None> Edit...

Format

☒ Tab position relative to Paragraph Style indent

OK Cancel Help Reset ☒ Preview

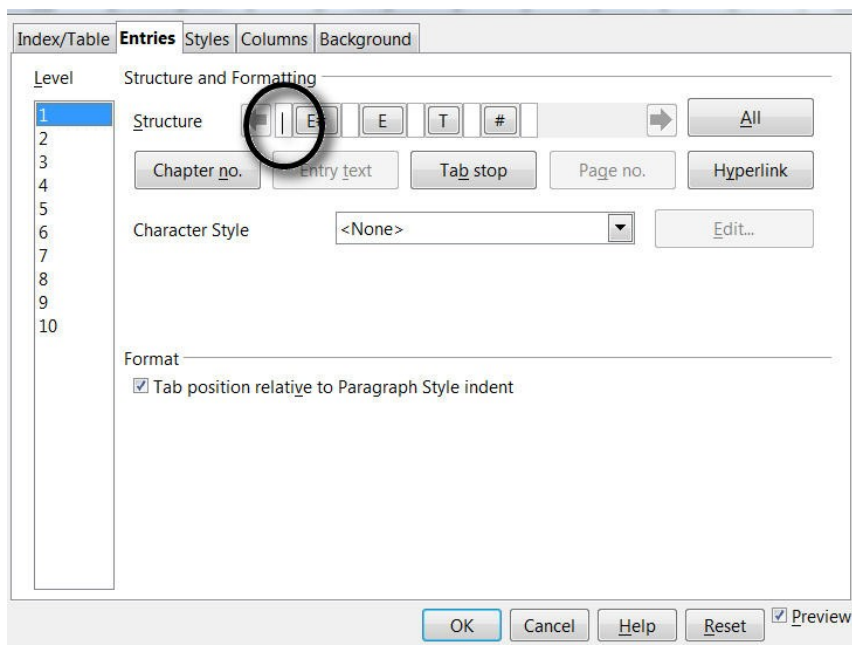

Yes, I know, it looks a bit confusing.

But!

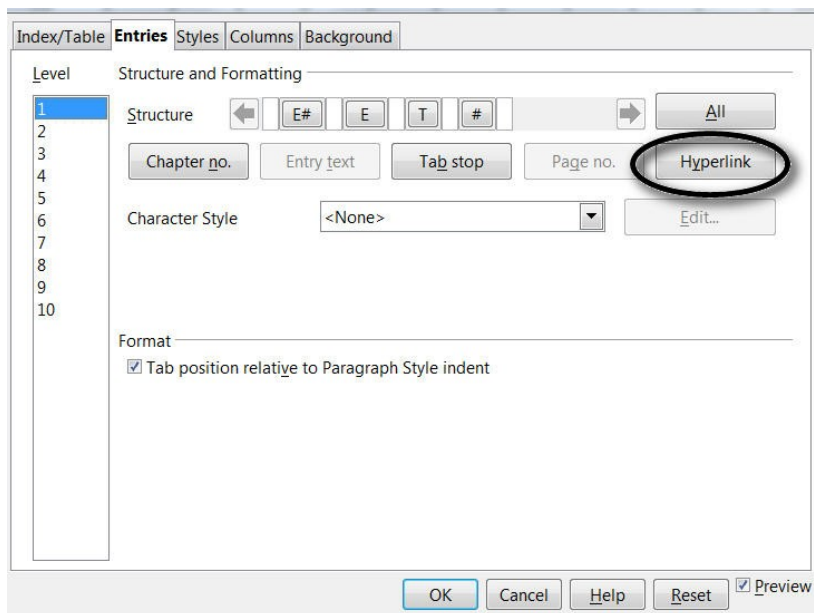

Click your mouse cursor right before the E#.

ie,

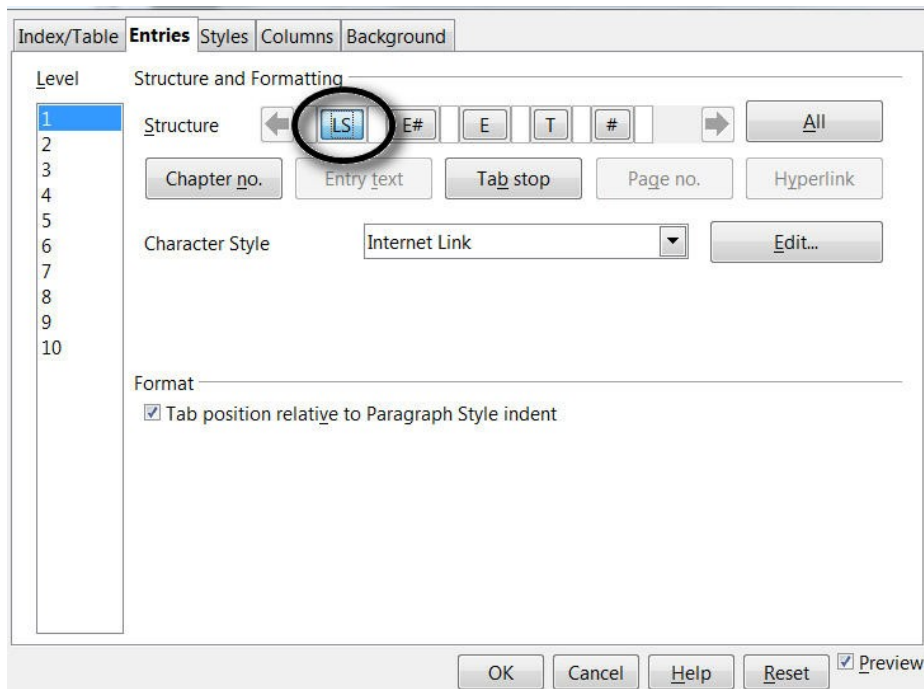

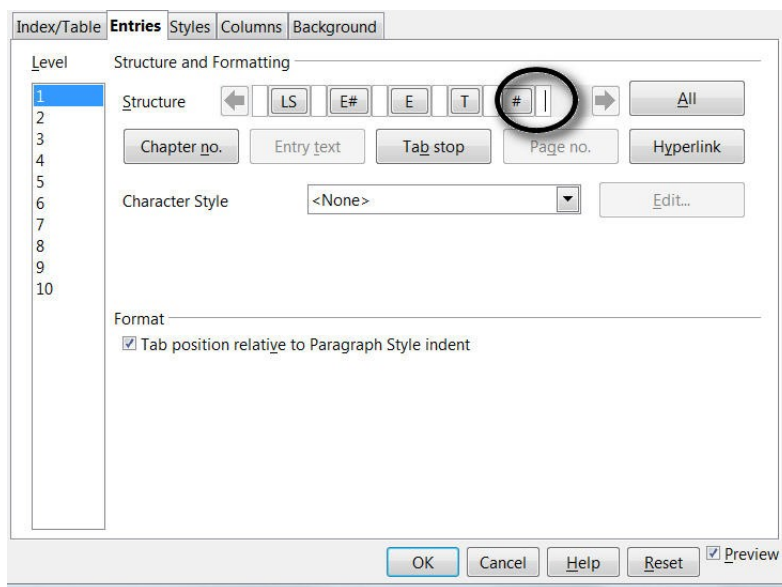

Then, click on the Hyperlink button:

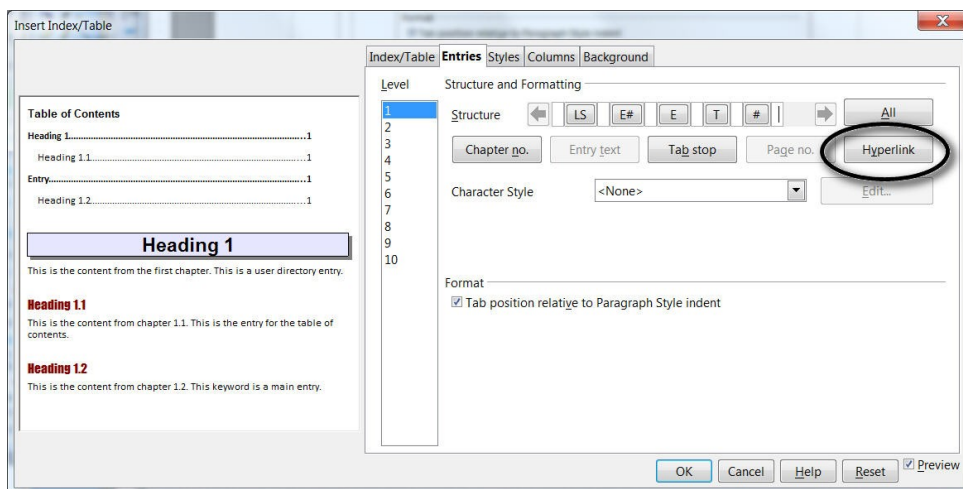

An “LS” for “Link Start” will pop up.

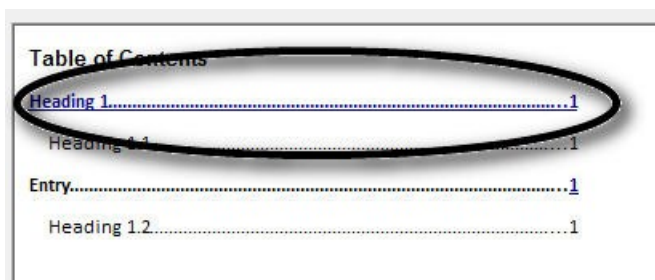

Then click your cursor in the box after the # (number sign):

Once you click in the box next to the # sign, the Hyperlink button will turn on.

And when you click on it, voila, you'll see in the left pane:

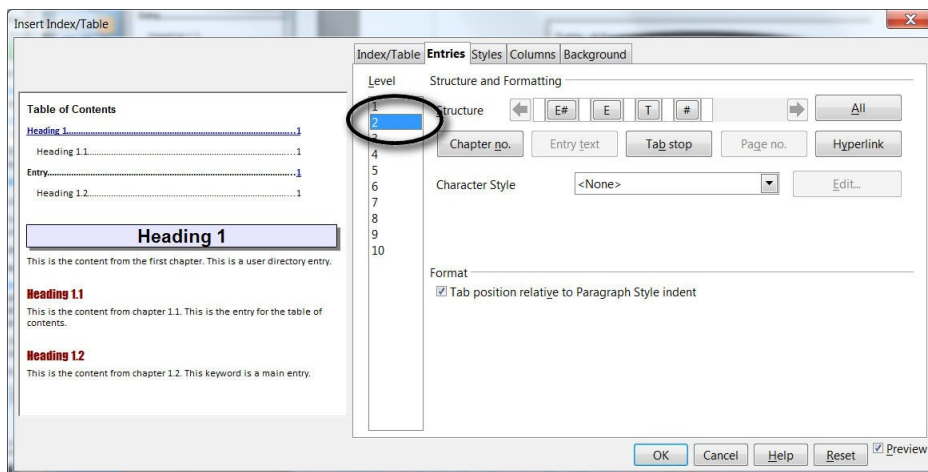

See?

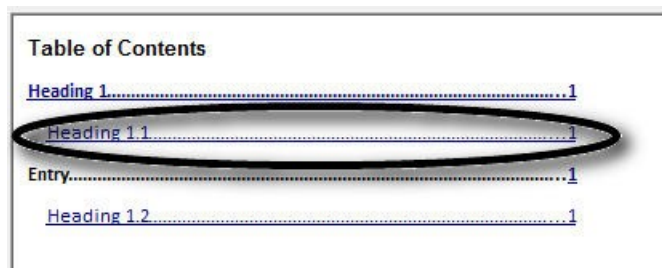

The TOC gets hyperlinked!

To get the Heading 2s hyperlinked, just go back to Entries and click on Level 2:

and do the same thing (ie, click your cursor right before E# and then select “Hyperlink”, click your cursor right after “#” and then select “Hyperlink”, and you'll see in the left pane:

See?

Both your Heading 1 and your Heading 2 entries will now be hyperlinked in your Table of Contents.

Neat, aye?

Never underestimate the importance of hyperlinked TOCs...it makes it 'way easier for customers to zero in on your information!

Next, let's close this report with:

Step 7 - Use Hyperlinks For More Information!

I am continuously astounded at just how easy it is to add hyperlinks for more information...and how many people just forget to do so.

Hyperlinks encourages interactivity! And more learning!

Let's say that you just wrote a book on, oh, gee, I don't know, trade shows. Speaking of which, make sure to check out <http://www.marketingmorsels.com> – Debbie is going to release a fantastic product about that soon!

Anywhos, let's say that you want to teach your readers how to search for anime tradeshow.

You could tell them,

- "Go to Google and search for "anime trade shows"

Or, you could write:

- "Go to Google and search for "anime trade shows"

Notice how that's now hyperlinked?

If you want to get even more basic, you could simply say:

- Search for "anime trade shows" like so:

<https://www.google.com/search?q=anime+trade+shows>

I personally like including 38202194 links whenever possible, but I've learned that at the most....maybe 3 links is a good number (because you don't want to overwhelm your readers).

I use links for all sorts of additional information, including:

- Links to more tutorials
- Links to useful videos
- Links to recommended resources
- Links to Twitter
- MORE!

Honestly, you really are limited only by your imagination.

So give yourself permission to unleash that imagination and write the best possible ebook you ever can!

BONUS – Add “Other Writings” Appendix

You know, some things are so obvious that you miss them, even when they're waving dollar signs in your face.

I was having a conversation with Debbie of MarketingMorsels in the wee hours of the morning, and it went like this.

[3:31:49 AM] Debbie Benstein: what made you choose the particular products in the back?

[3:32:17 AM] Barbara Ling: some sell well, others are at my virtual coach site

[3:34:17 AM] Debbie Benstein: see - that's where I would do it differently. For me, it's not so much about what sells well as it is about what will help my readers move forward. I'd do more targeted stuff. I'm guessing that there are other, more helpful options for you to be recommending rather than stuff that sells well. How about Kevin Riley's stuff for a start. Aimed at beginners, step-by-step and first class.

[3:34:30 AM] Barbara Ling: whats that stuff?

[3:34:57 AM] Debbie Benstein: your appendix B

And then I stopped and realized.... I hadn't changed my Appendix B now for, well, gee....6 months?

So I revisited it and realized some things.

1.) Even though the products are relevant for Internet marketing, they could be updated (gasp!).

So I removed/changed some.

2.) What ever happened to my writings?

Like, as my daughter would say, “Wow. Forget about your stuff! 'Way to go, mom!”

Thus was created my own Appendix E. What I did was:

- List my current products

and

- Take a snapshot of my WarriorPlus offerings and simply hyperlinked that image.

You can do this too. :)

BONUS - Add "About The Author" Appendix

Showcasing your knowledge, background and why you're an authority in your field...it's truly a Good Thing to do!

I used to have several pages for my About The Author section, and then I realized....

This is a peachy opportunity for me to encourage my readers to visit my actual flagship site and see what I have to offer there!

So instead, I just put in a headshot and teasers like so.
